

Come Home

For a few moments at a time
I see so clearly
For a few moments at a time
All the world is right
Christmas trees and Angels
Bows and ribbons tangled
For a few moments I've come home tonight

For a few moments at a time
No one is angry
For a few moments at a time
No one says goodbye
All my friends and family
Gathered round the fire
For a few moments I've come home tonight

I've come home
I belong
Sing those old familiar songs
About peace on earth
And Jesus' birth
And healing all the hurts

In this moment here tonight
I stand forgiven
In this moment here tonight
Love has brought me light
I'm so tired, I'm not running
I've found rest on Christmas Day
In this moment I've come home to stay
In this moment I've come home on Christmas Day
